Subject: Eid-ul-Fitr

To Whom it May Concern:

The individual named below is currently observing Ramadan, the holiest month in the Islamic calendar. During this sacred period, Muslims who are physically able to do so fast daily from before sunrise to sunset, refraining from both food and drink—including water.

At the conclusion of Ramadan, Muslims worldwide celebrate Eid-ul-Fitr, a joyous occasion marking a month of fasting, worship, perseverance, and humility. This celebration includes a special communal prayer attended by thousands. In Atlanta, local Muslims will join the global Muslim community in prayer and festivities.

This year, Eid-ul-Fitr is anticipated to commence on Sunday, March 30, 2025.

In light of this, we respectfully request that the individual named below be granted a religious excused absence on Sunday, March 30, 2025. This will enable them to participate in the Eid prayer and related religious celebrations with their family and community.

Should you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact our mosque at 404-874-7521 or via the email address provided below.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.
